Stay informed about Brexit

There is ongoing uncertainty about the exact nature and timescales of the UK’s exit from the European Union. The Oxford and the EU page on the Oxford Students website is being regularly updated to account for the changing landscape. Please keep referring back to the page for information about the possible impacts on students.

Academic Life
If you're worried about your exams, we're here to help

It's very normal to experience anxiety while revising for exams and sitting papers. But help is at hand. There are many resources, events and people available to help you with your revision and manage any exam anxiety you may have. Find links to the range of University support on offer via the Stress Less exam support webpage.

Read more

Academic English at the Language Centre

Want to improve your written and spoken academic English? The Academic English programme at the Language Centre is for international students who want to improve their Academic English literacy. There are courses in written communication as well as spoken communication. Enrol for Trinity term on the Language Centre website.

Oxford Life

How much does it cost for you to live?

In week 8 you should have received an email with a unique URL linking you to the Oxford Expenditure Survey. Please share information about the cost of student living, so we can make living costs calculations for prospective applicants, based on real experiences. The survey should take no more than 10 minutes to complete and will close on Tuesday 7 May.
Volunteering opportunities with Oxford Hub

The Oxford Hub has lots of exciting volunteering opportunities working with young people; such as Weekend Activity days, Sport mentoring, 1-1 mentoring and a huge range of early years provision, working with an overall age range of 0-16 years. If you want to get involved or find out more, visit the Oxford Hub website or email ellie@oxfordhub.org

Welfare & Wellbeing

Unicycle 2019
When the sunny spring days still feel a little cold, it's tempting to avoid heading out, but keep cycling around Oxford and you won't just be staying fit, protecting the planet and helping brush away the winter – you'll also have the chance to win great prizes. The University’s Environmental Sustainability team have more than 100 prizes to give away, from bike seat covers and extra lights to warm snoods and five goodie bags with t-shirts and mugs. Winners will be picked via the Unicycle website, with prizes available for new riders, people who encourage others to get involved and those who log journeys on the Unicycle site or mobile app.

Read more

Careers & Entrepreneurship

Summer internships are still available

The Internship Office is now advertising its first late round of summer internships exclusively for Oxford students. This includes opportunities in the UK and abroad, from Oxford to Oman, and there is no limit to the number of internships you can apply for. New opportunities include science projects at the University of Nizwa, Oman; arts and communications at the Universal Research Institute, Croatia; and re-advertised positions teaching English in China. Apply on CareerConnect by Monday 8 April.

Read more

Research & Innovation
Research highlight: Mobile devices don’t reduce shared family time, study finds

The first study of the impact of digital mobile devices on different aspects of family time in the UK has found that children are spending more time at home with their parents rather than less – but not in shared activities such as watching TV and eating. The increase is in what is called ‘alone-together’ time, when children are at home with their parents but say they are alone. Researchers from the Oxford University and the University of Warwick found alone-together time has increased by nearly 30 minutes a day between 2000 and 2015.

Interested in vaccine research?

Vaccine research participants will be reimbursed for their time and travel from £685 to £725.
Stay Informed

Stay informed with what's going on at Oxford by following our official Instagram, Twitter, and Facebook page. You can also find out about news and events on the Oxford Students website.

This publication is sent using a mail client, which is approved for use at the University; in line with its data privacy and information security policies. For further information, see the Oxford Students website.

Student News is produced by Academic Administration Division Communications Examination Schools, 75–81 High Street, Oxford OX1 4BG © Oxford University