

Follow this link to view the web version of this email on the Oxford Students website

Student News

Week 4 - Michaelmas term 2014

Student News is emailed to you fortnightly during term from Week 0 and contains key information, including deadlines, reminders and events from the central University. Further information is available from the Oxford Students website.

Missed your University registration?

University registration is now closed. If you have not registered using Student Self Service, contact your college (or department if you do not have a college) to be enrolled for the 2014/15 academic year. You are now unable to log in to Student Self Service to verify your personal details, print an enrolment certificate as proof of student status, or view your examination and assessment results, until you have been enrolled.

Workshops to help build skills

A range of topical workshops are available to help you build skills to respond to the demands of university life. Covering topics from examination anxiety and sleep problems, to enhancing memory function and reducing stress, find out more from the Oxford Students website.

Do you have a story to tell about Oxford?

The Undergraduate Admissions team would like to hear stories about your Oxford experience to feature in the next undergraduate prospectus. Whether you are new to the University this term, or have been here for several years, tell us about your undergraduate experiences at Oxford. There is also an opportunity to be part of a collage of student faces on the cover of the prospectus. Visit the My Oxford survey.

Internship Fair 2014

The Internship Fair 2014, taking place from 14:30 to 18:00 on Wednesday 5 November 2014 at the Oxford Town Hall, provides the opportunity to meet over 30 employers offering internships in a range of sectors, including: consultancy, energy, engineering, finance, computing and more. You will also have the opportunity to find out about the Internship Programme, which offers hundreds of placements around the world, exclusively for Oxford University students. Find out more about the Internship Fair, or careers events on the Oxford Students latest news pages.

Arts, Media and Marketing Fair

The Arts, Media and Marketing Fair provides the opportunity to learn about careers in journalism, creative arts, museums, TV & film, advertising, publishing and more. Taking place from 14:00 to 18:00 on Thursday 6 November at the Oxford Town Hall, a range of industry experts and alumni will be in attendance. The Fair will also feature a series of sector talks throughout the afternoon. Visit the Careers Service blog.

Graduate Open Day at the Dept of Computer Science

The Department of Computer Science and the Centres for Doctoral Training in Cyber Security and Autonomous Intelligent Machines and Systems are hosting a graduate Open Day on Saturday 8 November. Hear about the research taking place in the Department and talk with current students and staff over an informal lunch. You can also meet representatives from Graduate Admissions & Funding and the Saïd Business School and tour a college. Register now on the Computer Science website.

IT Services Help Centre support

The IT Services Help Centre provides support including: computing advice, PC/Mac support and the repair and upgrade of personal computers. Contact the Help Centre on 01865 273200 or by using the Help Request Form. You can book an appointment with a help desk consultant - 09:00-17:00, Monday to Friday - or make use of the drop-in service, available from 17:30-20:30 at the IT Services offices on Banbury Road.

Are you interested in photography?

PhotOx is a photography society which aims to provide a creative environment for those passionate about photography to receive inspiration, technical advice and constructive feedback about their images. The weekly classes, taking place from 17:30 on Thursdays during Michaelmas term, cost £6 per class, plus a £10 membership fee for the term. To join the society, email David Tolley using your University email.

Oxford Climate Forum

Find out more about climate change and climate change action from some of the leading voices in the environmental world. Sign up now to get a discounted early bird ticket for the Oxford Climate Forum: Autumn 2014. Taking place on Friday 21 and Saturday 22 November 2014, the event is the country's largest student climate change conference. For information about the talks and speakers, and to book your ticket, visit the Oxford Climate Forum website.

Interested in studying at University of Pennsylvania?

Graduate research students have the opportunity to spend up to a year at the University of Pennsylvania in 2015/16. Tuition costs at the University of Pennsylvania and health insurance fees are covered by the scholarship. In addition, an annual stipend of £8,000 is payable. The application deadline is Friday 16 January 2015. Visit the Queen Elizabeth Scholarship website.

Financial support for students with refugee status

If you have refugee status in the UK, you are eligible to apply for a grant from the Lord Mayor's Educational Trust Fund for Refugee Scholars, administered by Oxford City Council. To receive a copy of the application form, contact Student Fees and Funding and apply before Saturday 31 January 2015.

Charterhouse European bursaries

Bursaries are available to undertake a period of study in Europe. Awards of up to £6,500 are available for periods ranging from three months to one year. Applications close Friday 20 February 2015. Visit the Charterhouse European Bursary website.

Scholarships for study in Germany

Hanseatic, Michael Foster and Theodor Heuss scholarships are available for final year undergraduate and postgraduate students wishing to undertake research or study for one or two years in Germany in 2015/16. Applications close on Friday 6 February 2015. Visit the German Scholarships website.

Student News is produced by Academic Administration Division Communications, Examination Schools, 75-81 High Street, Oxford OX1 4BG.