

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

UNDERGRADUATE
PROSPECTUS 2020

OXFORD IS...

WHAT IT COSTS

HOW WILL I PAY FOR IT?

- Around 1 in 4 UK and EU students currently receives a bursary.
- Oxford offers one of the most generous financial support packages available for UK students and this may be supplemented by support from your college.
- Oxford is excellent value for money. We offer intensive and personalised teaching through tutorials, but our course fees (including those for international students) are still the same as most other top English universities.
- The University's extensive resources can also help keep costs down. Books on course reading lists can normally be found in libraries. College food is heavily subsidised.
- All UK students can receive a tuition fee loan from the government to cover their course fees as well as funding towards their living costs. Currently you are only expected to begin to pay this back once you have completed your course and are earning over a set amount.

IS YOUR FAMILY INCOME £27,500 OR LESS?

We plan to offer generous non-repayable bursaries of up to £5,000 p.a. to eligible UK students as part of the Moritz-Heyman Scholarship programme. These awards include funded internships and volunteering opportunities.

I come from a single parent family, and my mum has a chronic illness, as a result of which I've been her carer on and off for around five years. Money stress was the last thing I needed as I was preparing to come to Oxford... so getting my Moritz-Heyman offer took a huge weight off my shoulders. Without a doubt, the Moritz-Heyman Scholarship was one of the most valuable opportunities I've ever been given.

ELLE

Receiving an Oxford Bursary means I'm not limited financially to committing to extra-curricular activities... It makes my time at Oxford easier, as I don't have to worry about finance, and also supports me in any endeavours relevant to my degree, such as concerts or workshops.

HOW MUCH IS IT?

COURSE FEES

- What you pay each year is determined by your fee status (based on your nationality and where you usually live).
- The fees for all undergraduate students in 2020-21 will be confirmed in autumn 2019.
- While fees will usually increase annually the University caps the amount of that increase, for students continuing on the same course. For those eligible to pay fees at the Home rate, these are subject to a governmental fee cap. ox.ac.uk/ffchanges-fees
- The 2019-20 course fees for Home/EU students are £9,250.
- Fee rates and support for EU students starting a course in academic year 2020-21 are currently unknown. ox.ac.uk/students/oxford-and-the-eu
- Overseas and Islands students should visit ox.ac.uk/ugfees for information about their course fees.

UK GOVERNMENT SUPPORT

- All UK students can receive a government tuition fee loan for their course fees as well as funding towards living costs. www.gov.uk/apply-for-student-finance
- Student finance applications open from early 2020:
 - England: www.gov.uk/student-finance
 - Scotland: www.saas.gov.uk
 - Northern Ireland: www.studentfinancenir.co.uk
 - Wales: www.studentfinancewales.co.uk

Receiving the bursary has helped me to afford accommodation and study costs for my course without struggling financially, which makes all the difference to my peace of mind. I cannot only just focus on my academic responsibilities but take a more active role in student societies and college life.

LIVING COSTS

- These costs depend on your lifestyle but allow around £1,060 to £1,645 a month to cover essentials like your room and food.
- Budget over nine months to cover the full academic year including the holidays.
- Any additional costs associated with your course, such as field trips or special equipment can be found at: ox.ac.uk/courses.

OXFORD SUPPORT

- We intend to provide Oxford Bursaries of between £3,200 and £500 p.a. to eligible undergraduates with family incomes of £0-£42,875.
- Non-repayable bursaries of up to a maximum of £7,200 p.a. will be available to support eligible UK students who are care leavers or estranged (studying without family support).
- Find out about funding availability and study costs using the Fees, Funding and Scholarship calculator at: ox.ac.uk/ffsearch.
- Colleges often have additional student support funds including travel awards, prizes and book grants. ox.ac.uk/funding

Oxford has the most generous bursary package I've come across. I keep track of what I'm spending week-by-week but haven't found myself stretched.

ELIZABETH

Eating in college is really cheap, and you rarely have to buy books because Oxford has everything.
