University Statutes, Regulations and Policies

8. You agree to comply with the University's Statutes and Regulations as amended from time to time and with the Statements and Codes of Policy, Practice and Procedure which are made under them for Legislation, the University's Statutes, Regulations, Policies and Codes of Practice and Exam Regulations. They include:
 - a. the University's Code of Discipline under Statute XI. This sets out behaviour which is considered unacceptable by students and which may result in disciplinary action;
 - b. other regulations concerning your studies, residence, conduct and behaviour: examples are the ownership and exploitation of intellectual property, harassment, the use of IT and library facilities, health and safety issues and legislative requirements such as data protection; and
 - c. the Student Responsibility Agreement ('SRA') setting out standards of behaviour required of students during any pandemic (including Covid-19), epidemic or local health emergency, which all students are required to comply with as a condition of being permitted access to in-person teaching and facilities. The term 'SRA' includes any University code of behaviour or similar requirement, as updated from time to time, which sets out behaviour required of students during any pandemic, epidemic or local health emergency. The University will decide, before commencement of each academic year, whether an SRA is required. The University may also decide to put an SRA in place at any point if a pandemic, epidemic or local health emergency arises or has already arisen. If an SRA is in force then the University may take disciplinary action for breaches of required behaviours.
9. The key provisions which you need to be aware of are summarised in your Student Handbook and in this agreement.
10. You agree that the University may take disciplinary action against you for breach of its Statutes and Regulations and the Statements and Codes of Policy, Practice and Procedure, including the Code of Discipline. Such action would take place under the appropriate procedure and could result in sanctions including suspension or expulsion.

emergency). Without limiting that general obligation, reasonable measures may include imposing specific requirements regarding personal protective equipment such as the wearing of masks, or specific safety measures such as use of hand sanitiser or distancing procedures. You must also immediately declare to your college if you have, or suspect you have, symptoms of Covid-19 (or any other serious infectious illness), or if you have received a positive test for Covid-19, and comply with any required health, testing, isolation, distancing or health and safety measures in place, as updated from time to time;

The scope of the University's right to make changes under clause 18 below should be construed accordingly.

19. No refunds, discounts, damages or waivers of fees or other charges will be payable to you where changes or delays have resulted from, been caused by, or are in relation to a pandemic (including but not limited to Covid-19), epidemic or local health emergency necessitating measures to reduce risk of infection or illness. Furthermore, the University will not be liable for any consequential losses or expenses you may incur (eg travel or accommodation costs) as a result of any such pandemic, epidemic or health emergency measures.

Events beyond our control

20. The University will not be in breach of its obligations under its contract with you, nor liable to you for any loss caused to you under this agreement which results from events which are beyond the University's reasonable control, such as: a pandemic (Covid-19 or otherwise), epidemic or local health emergency necessitating measures to reduce risks of infection or illness; industrial action; acts of God; acts of terrorism; or failure or delay by third party suppliers and subcontractors.
