Congratulations

We’re really pleased to have made you an offer to study at Oxford, and we hope to see you here in October.

We will be back in touch soon but if you need any more information in the meantime, visit the Oxford Students website. Alternatively, if you’re waiting to hear about scholarships or your college place, find out about those decision timelines here.

If you want to stay up to date with what's going on at Oxford, follow the official Oxford Students Facebook and Twitter account. We share regular updates about academic opportunities, social events, internships and much more.

Oxford Student Union

Oxford SU is the official students' union of the University of Oxford. It exists to represent students and provide direct services to the student body. To find out more about Oxford SU and what they’re up to, visit the official Oxford SU website.

Helpful resources

If you need some well-being or academic advice, listen to one of our many University podcasts. Topics include how to get past perfectionism, exam preparation and revision, self-compassion, being a mature student and much more. The supportive resources page of the Oxford Students website also includes links to a range of resources that could help you now and during your time at Oxford.

International Student Information

Summer Pre-sessional English Course

Are you an international student whose first language is not English? The Language Centre encourages you to attend its Summer Pre-sessional English Course to develop your research skills, improve your spoken and written academic English and get to know the University and city. The six-week course will boost your confidence in interpreting and following academic instructions, time management and communicating your ideas effectively. It’s also a chance to make some new friends from across the globe. The course runs from Monday 6 August – Friday 14 September and you can enrol now via the Language Centre website.
