Congratulations

We’re really pleased to have made you an offer to study at Oxford, and we hope to see you here in October.

We will be back in touch soon but if you need any more information in the meantime, visit the Oxford Students website.
Oxford Students social media

If you want to stay up to date with what's going on at Oxford, follow the official Oxford Students Facebook and Twitter account. We share regular updates about academic opportunities, social events, internships and much more.

Oxford Student Union

Oxford SU is the official students' union of the University of Oxford. It exists to represent students and provide direct services to the student body. To find out more about Oxford SU and what they're up to, visit the official Oxford SU website.