

Competition terms and conditions

1. The competition

- 1.1 The title of the competition is Love Oxford-Berlin Photo Competition.
- 1.2 The competition is run by the University of Oxford, whose administrative offices are at Wellington Square, Oxford OX1 2JD.
- 1.3 To enter, Oxford students must upload a photo to social media using the hashtags #OXBER and #Oxford showing how they are supporting the community.
- 1.4 The competition will run from 00:01 on Monday 3rd February (the "Opening Date") to 23:59 on Sunday 16th February (the "Closing Date") inclusive.
- 1.5 All competition entries must be posted to Instagram, Facebook or Twitter using the hashtags #LoveOXBER and #Oxford. All competition entries posted after the Closing Date, and/or without these hashtags are automatically disqualified.
- 1.6 To enter the competition, upload an image to Instagram, Facebook or Twitter showing how you are supporting the community, using the hashtags #OXBER and #Oxford. No purchase necessary.
- 1.7 The University will not accept responsibility for competition entries that are not uploaded without the hashtags, or listed within the required timeframe.
- 1.8 By submitting a competition entry, you are agreeing to be bound by these terms and conditions.
- 1.9 For help with entries, please contact us via @oxunistudents on Twitter, Facebook or Instagramme.
- 1.10 The competition entries will be judged by a panel of judges based on their aesthetic quality, originality, and relevance of the image and caption to the subject theme of the competition. The decision of the panel of judges (acting reasonably) will be final.
- 1.11 The University will send the full names of the judges to anyone who writes within one month after the Closing Date of the competition requesting details of the judges to academicadmin.comms@admin.ox.ac.uk

2. Eligibility

- 2.1 The competition is only open to current students of the University of Oxford. If you are under the age of 18, you must obtain written parental or guardian consent to enter and claim your prize.
- 2.2 In entering the competition, you confirm that you are eligible to do so and eligible to claim the prize. The University may require you to provide proof that you are eligible to enter the competition.
- 2.3 The University will not accept competition entries that:
- (a) Do not include the #LoveOXBER and #Oxford hashtags
 - (b) Are not the own work, and solely owned by the entrant
 - (c) Are submitted by non-Oxford students.
- 2.4 There is no limit to the number of entries per person.
- 2.5 The University reserves all rights to disqualify you if your conduct is contrary to the spirit or intention of the prize competition.

3. The prize

- 3.1 The first prize is one trip to Berlin for two people. Three runners-up will each receive one book voucher to the value of £50.

 - Three nights' accommodation in a Berlin hotel
 - Daily allowance of 40 Euros
 - Entrance to the Long Night of the Sciences event.
- 3.3 The prize does not include travel insurance, tax or additional personal expenses. Any other costs incurred in addition to those set out above and that are incidental to the fulfilment of the prize are the responsibility of the winner(s).

- 3.4 You will be responsible for ensuring that you and any person travelling with you are available to travel and hold valid passports, any necessary visas and travel documents for the holiday in question on the travel dates specified.
- 3.5 Prizes are subject to availability. There is no cash alternative for the prize.
- 3.6 The prize is supplied by the University. The University reserves the right to replace the prize with an alternative prize of equal or higher value if circumstances beyond the University's control makes it necessary to do so.
- 3.7 The prize is not negotiable or transferable.
- 3.8 The competition organisers will contact the winner.

4. Winners

- 4.1 The decision of the judges nominated by the University is final and no correspondence or discussion will be entered into.
- 4.2 The owners of the winning social media account will be contacted after the judges have made a decision. The account owners will be asked to send an email from their University email address confirming their student number and their status as a current Oxford student.
- 4.3 The University must either publish or make available information that indicates that a valid award took place. To comply with this obligation the University will send the surname and county of major prize winners and, if applicable copies of their winning entries, to anyone who emails academicadmin.comms@admin.ox.ac.uk within one month after the Closing Date of the competition.
- 4.4 If you object to any or all of your surname, county and winning entry being published or made available, please contact academic.admincomms@admin.ox.ac.uk. In such circumstances, the University must still provide the information and winning entry to the Advertising Standards Authority on request.

5. Claiming the prize

- 5.1 If you are the winner of the prize, you will have five days from the Announcement Date to confirm your student status and claim the prize. If you do not claim the prize by this date, your claim will become invalid.
- 5.2 The prize may not be claimed by a third party on your behalf.

5.3 The University will make all reasonable efforts to contact the winner. If the winner cannot be contacted, is not available, or has not confirmed their student number within five days of the Announcement Date, the University reserves the right to offer the prize to the next eligible entrant selected from the correct entries that were received before the Closing Date.

5.4 The University does not accept any responsibility if you are not able to take up the prize.

6. Limitation of liability

Insofar as is permitted by law, the University, its agents or distributors will not in any circumstances be responsible or liable to compensate the winner or accept any liability for any loss, damage, personal injury or death occurring as a result of taking up the prize except where it is caused by the negligence of the University, its agents or distributors or that of their employees. Your statutory rights are not affected.

7. Intellectual property rights

7.1 You agree that the University may, but is not required to, make your entry available on its website and any other media, whether now known or invented in the future, in connection with any publicity of the competition and promotion of the Oxford-Berlin Partnership. You agree to grant the University a non-exclusive, royalty free, worldwide, irrevocable licence, for the full period of any intellectual property rights in the competition entry, to use, display, publish, transmit, copy, edit, alter, store, re-format and sub-licence the competition entry for such purposes.

7.2 You confirm that you have all the necessary rights and permissions to grant the licence above, and that your competition entry does not infringe the copyright or any other right of a third party or breach any contract or duty of confidence.

8. Data protection and publicity

8.1 The University will only process your personal information in line with its privacy policy.. See also condition 4.1 and condition 4.4, with regard to the announcement of winners.

9. General

9.1 If there is any reason to believe that there has been a breach of these terms and conditions, the University may, at its sole discretion, reserve the right to exclude you from participating in the competition.

9.2 The University reserves the right to hold void, suspend, cancel, or amend the prize competition where it becomes necessary to do so.

9.3 These terms and conditions shall be governed by English law, and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
