Good luck in your exams

We know that most of you will be taking exams very soon and we just want to wish you good luck.

If you are looking for exam tips and advice, you can find useful information on the Oxford Students website.
Support and guidance

Many students experience anxiety while revising for and sitting papers. The Oxford Students website contains suggestions which may help you cope with exam anxiety, insomnia, revision and exam preparation.

Exam preparation podcast

Our exam preparation podcast is for any student preparing to take exams. The podcast provides useful reminders of how to start planning for revision and offers lots of practical tips.

Disability Advisory Service

If you have a learning disability, physical disability or a long term mental health condition, please don’t forget to get in touch with our Disability Advisory Service (DAS). DAS offers a range of support that could help you during your time at Oxford.

International Student Information

The Language Centre

You can use the Language Centre whatever course you will be studying at Oxford. The centre offers classes in 12 modern languages, from beginners’ level to advanced, and has multi-media resources in over 200 languages.

If your first language isn’t English, you can join academic English courses after you arrive. These cover advanced writing and communication skills. You may also be interested in the Summer Pre-sessional English Course. This will develop your research skills, improve your spoken and written academic English and help you get to know the University and city. The course runs from Monday 6 August to Friday 14 September and you can enrol online now.

This publication is sent using a mail client, which is approved for use at the University; in line with its data privacy and information security policies. For further information, see the Oxford Students website.