

Fees and Funding for UK/EU undergraduates starting in 2020

Oxford will offer generous non-repayable bursaries to UK and EU first-degree undergraduates from lower-income households. ox.ac.uk/funding

OXFORD FUNDING: UK UNDERGRADUATES

IS YOUR HOUSEHOLD INCOME £27,500 OR LESS?

If you are a UK-resident studying for your first degree and your annual household income is £27,500 or less, we will offer you a non-repayable Crankstart Bursary worth up to £5,000 per year towards study and living costs. The Crankstart Scholarship (formerly Moritz-Heyman) also provides access to funded internships to develop employability skills, volunteering opportunities and social and community-building events.

YOUR ANNUAL HOUSEHOLD INCOME	YOUR NON-REPAYABLE CRANKSTART BURSARY (PER YEAR)
£5,000 or less	£5,000
£5,001–£27,500	£4,200

If you do not take up your Crankstart Scholarship, but have a qualifying household income, you will be eligible for an Oxford Bursary of between £3,200 and £2,000.

IS YOUR HOUSEHOLD INCOME BETWEEN £27,501 AND £42,875?

If you are a first-degree UK student and your annual household income is £42,875 or less, you will be eligible to receive a non-repayable Oxford Bursary to help with the costs of studying and living in Oxford. The bursary amount will depend on your household income:

YOUR ANNUAL HOUSEHOLD INCOME	YOUR NON-REPAYABLE OXFORD BURSARY (PER YEAR)
£27,501–£30,000	£2,000
£30,001–£35,000	£1,500
£35,001–£37,500	£1,000
£37,501–£40,000	£800
£40,001–£42,875	£500

EXTRA ASSISTANCE FOR....

UK bursary holders who live more than 80 miles from Oxford

We will help with your travel costs between Oxford and your stated home address. If you are a Crankstart Scholar or an Oxford Bursary recipient, you will automatically receive a non-repayable annual Oxford Travel Supplement of £200 if you live between 80 and 150 miles from Oxford. If you live more than 150 miles from Oxford, you will receive an annual Oxford Travel Supplement of £500. If eligible you will be notified of this additional funding shortly after being contacted about your bursary funding from Oxford.

UK care leavers and UK estranged undergraduates studying without family support

If you have ever been in care for more than three months, or are estranged from your family, we will provide you with a non-repayable annual bursary of up to £3,000 so that you have additional funding to help with costs, including during the vacations. You can apply for this support during your course. If you are also holding a Crankstart Scholarship, you would be eligible for a total maximum annual bursary of £7,200.

UK students requiring financial assistance to meet funding shortfalls

We are launching a new Student Support Fund to assist UK students who may require financial assistance in a range of circumstances. If you have a shortfall in your finances or need to meet additional exceptional costs once you have started your course, you will be able to apply for non-repayable supplementary funding.

OXFORD FUNDING: EU UNDERGRADUATES

If you are a first-degree EU student and your household income is £42,875 or less, you will be eligible to receive a non-repayable Oxford Bursary to help with the costs of studying and living in Oxford. The bursary amount will depend on your household income:

YOUR ANNUAL HOUSEHOLD INCOME	YOUR NON-REPAYABLE OXFORD BURSARY (PER YEAR)
£0–£16,000	£3,200
£16,001–£25,000	£3,000–£2,500
£25,001–£30,000	£2,000
£30,001–£42,875	£1,500–£500

HOW TO GET FUNDING FROM OXFORD

Providing you complete a financial assessment in your application for UK government funding (applications open in early 2020 at gov.uk/apply-online-for-student-finance) you will be automatically contacted if you qualify for a Crankstart Scholarship or an Oxford Bursary. Your college may also offer additional student support funds, eg, prizes, travel grants and book grants.

LIVING COSTS

Oxford living costs are estimated to be between £1,135 and £1,650 per month in 2020–21. You will usually need to be in Oxford for around six months of the year (three terms of eight weeks each), but you might find it beneficial to budget over nine months to cover the full academic year. ox.ac.uk/uglivingcosts

UK (Home) students undertaking their first undergraduate degree can access government funding towards their living costs. A guide to the government funding available based on 2019–20 amounts is shown below by regional funding agency, and Student Finance applications will open in early 2020.

From England?

Apply to Student Finance England:

www.gov.uk/student-finance

Young Students' Bursary: up to £2,000 for students from low-income households

From the rest of the EU?

EU students are not entitled to receive UK government maintenance funding, so you must ensure that you have enough funds to cover your living costs.

COURSE FEES

Your Oxford course fees in 2020–21 will be £9,250 and will usually increase annually ox.ac.uk/ugfees. UK (Home) and EU students undertaking their first undergraduate degree can access a tuition fee loan from the UK government for the full amount of the course fees. You do not need to pay anything up front if you take out a government fee loan.

gov.uk/apply-for-student-finance.

LOAN REPAYMENTS

Currently you are only expected to begin to pay back your Student Finance loan once you leave your course and are earning over a set amount. More information is available at gov.uk/repaying-your-student-loan.

FURTHER INFORMATION FOR EU STUDENTS

Details about the implications of UK's plans to leave the European Union are available on our dedicated webpage at ox.ac.uk/students/oxford-and-the-eu.

Already studied for a degree?

If you have studied at undergraduate level before and completed your course, you will be classed as an Equivalent or Lower Qualification student (ELQ) and won't receive government or university funding. If you did not complete your degree, the funding you have already received will be taken into account so you might not get funding for the full length of your course. See www.ox.ac.uk/elq.
