Regent’s Park College

AT A GLANCE

Kind. Informal. Supportive. Academically Excellent

‘Regent’s is a very special place and I think that anyone who’s been here as a student knows that. You feel it very tangibly when you’re here in College. It’s such a personal and close-knit community, and that means a lot.’

'I know that hardship funds have been helpful for a lot of students this year who’ve struggled with access to resources, particularly being at home, rather than at college.'

Number of undergraduates: 120

Location:

We are close by the Ashmolean Museum and St Giles. We are one of the smallest academic communities in Oxford, a quiet, supportive home with a beautiful quad. We are right in the centre of town, but tucked away on a quiet side street. This is a calm, quiet place to think and work, but you can be in the bustle of the city centre just a couple of minutes after walking out of the main door.

Accommodation:

Comfortable single-occupancy accommodation for all years of undergraduate study – rooms ranging from £1,160 to £1950 per term including utility bills.

Accessibility

We have wheelchair access to the ground floor and a stair lift to the Angus library. We have accessible ground floor accommodation on site. We also have a fantastically supportive JCR, MCR, and welfare team.
Information about catering

Lunch is served from 12.30pm – 130pm cafeteria style, and dinner from 6:30pm – 7:30pm cafeteria style.

We have vegetarian and vegan options at all meals, and an 85% vegan salad bar.

Our typical meal prices are as follows: Breakfast: £1.70 continental; £2.60 cooked breakfast; Lunch: £3.60 for main course, 80p dessert; Dinner: £3.60/£4.60 for main course, 80p dessert; Formal Hall: £10.60 for three course, served meal.

To help you budget, the average student meal spends per meal during a typical week in 2018-2019 were:

- Breakfast: £2.39
- Lunch: £3.95
- Dinner: £5.45 (includes formal hall, average is £4.16 without).

Throughout the year, we also host special dinners and events, including: Advent Dinners; Freshers’, Halfway and Finalists’ Dinners; the Recognition Formal; Burns’ Night; and special themed food evenings.

Other College facilities

Regent’s is the home of the Angus Library and Archive, the world’s leading collection for the study of Baptist history and heritage: https://theangus.rpc.ox.ac.uk/.

We are also home to perhaps the most important creature in Oxford, a 117 year old tortoise called Emmanuelle.