We add £2.3bn a year to the Oxfordshire economy and support around 33,700 jobs in the county.

Regional Economic Impact of the University of Oxford

The University employs over 17,000 people.

University staff spend £248m in Oxfordshire.

Through spending, work and volunteering, our students add £62.5m a year to the Oxfordshire economy.

Technology licensing and spinouts from Oxford research add £147m a year to the Oxfordshire economy.

Licensing and spinouts support 2,400 local jobs.

The tourists we attract add £99m a year to the Oxfordshire economy. They support 3,450 jobs.

Oxford & Begbroke Science Parks add £155m a year to the Oxfordshire economy. They support 2,800 jobs.

Source: BiGGAR Economics report ‘Economic Impact of the University of Oxford’ (2017). All figures relate to the 2014/15 year and economic contribution is measured as Gross Value Added (GVA). See the full report at: www.ox.ac.uk/economicimpact