

St Hilda's College

AT A GLANCE

Progressive. Supportive. Inclusive. Diverse. Picturesque

St Hilda's is welcoming and in a good location

St Hilda's is by the River Cherwell and the College community and values are great!

Number of undergraduates: Around 400 undergraduates across all years

Location: St Hilda's has an open, green, riverside location and is located between the vibrant bars and cafes of Cowley Road, the University's sports facilities, and the High Street.

Accommodation: All first years are guaranteed on site accommodation. We are usually able to offer accommodation to all finalists who want it, although some students prefer to find their own accommodation in Oxford. All rooms are single and not en-suite for first year students. Accommodation for 2020-21 approximately costs £1,519 per term. Accommodation prices usually rise approximately 3-4 per cent annually

Accessibility: St Hilda's welcomes all students with a disability. We warmly encourage you to contact us to discuss how we can plan to support you, in collaboration with the University's Disability Advisory Service. At the College we have a Disability Fellow who students can contact to discuss various options. St Hilda's has many rooms that are adapted for disabled students such as rooms with adapted shared bathrooms and adapted en-suite bathrooms. There is wheelchair access to the College via the main entrance and there is accessible teaching spaces as well as access to the library via a lift.

All dietary requirements can be catered for, including vegan, vegetarian, Halal, and Kosher options.

Freshers are asked for any dietary requirements before they arrive.

Formal Halls are available most Wednesdays. Students have access to kitchens in their accommodations. St Hilda's also has themed dinner nights, which has food from all around the world and also different styles. An average meal costs around £4 to £4.50.

College societies:

St Hilda's has a lot of college societies and whatever we don't offer, you'll find a university wide society or you can set one up - you can make a society for pretty much anything! At the college we have students who are involved in the hockey, football, badminton, netball, kayak, and touch rugby teams. There's a choir, a drama society, and an orchestra too.

Other College facilities:

On site gym available for students to use for free (after an induction)

Multi faith space

Purpose built music building called the JDP which has events, recording studios, and bookable practice rooms. There's a concert every Thursday lunchtime during term time where students can perform.

The library is open from 7am to 1am during term time.

We have our own punts which St Hilda's students can borrow free of charge. We also have a College Bar.
