

TAKING YOUR OPEN-BOOK EXAMS

TYPED

Last updated: Tuesday 18 May 2021

Before your exam day

Please read the essential guidance on the TT21 open-book exams student webpage and in the Inspira Student Guide.

Have multi-factor authentication \(MFA\) set up on your mobile and also have an additional method of authentication, e.g. the Authy app set up on your computer.

Starting your exam

On the day of your exam, log in to Inspira using your Oxford single sign-on (SSO).

Exams are called 'tests' in Inspira.

In My tests, you should see the exam name, date, time, and duration of your exam – including any technical and extra time.

Select Click here to get ready.

You'll see the Honour Code Pledge - you're agreeing to this by proceeding. When you're ready to begin, click Start test. Your time starts now.

Your Exam Paper is attached at the bottom left of the screen along with any additional material.

Writing your exam response

Select the number tab at the bottom of the screen for the question you're answering.

Now you can type your answer in the typed response box.

Use the tool bar to expand your view of the response box, 'tile' your exam paper window, and format your content. See the Inspira Guide for more details.

A word count and spellcheck is available in the bottom right corner.

Submitting your exam response

Your exam response will be submitted automatically at the end of your allocated exam time.

To submit early, click the 'tick' icon and you'll see a summary of the questions you've attempted. When you're ready to submit, click Submit and return to the Dashboard.

You'll be taken back to the Honour Code page with a message confirming that you have submitted your exam response.

There will NOT be an email confirmation.

You still have the option to amend your exam responses until your individual allocated exam time runs out.

If you experience any technical problems during exams, please complete the help form at: ox.ac.uk/online-exams-help or if you cannot get online, call +44 1865 612121.
