

SECOND PUBLIC EXAMINATION
TRINITY TERM 2017

Preliminary Examination in Ancient and Modern History

Monday	19 June	09:30	Sallust
Tuesday	20 June	09:30	Greek History from 650 to 479 BC Roman History from 241 to 146 BC
Wednesday	21 June	09:30	General History from 1000 to 1300 (Medieval Christendom and its Neighbours) General History from 1400 to 1650 (Renaissance, Recovery and Reform) General History from 1815 to 1914 (Society, Nation and Empire) General History from 370 to 900 (The Transformation of the Ancient World)
Thursday	22 June	09:30	Augustan Rome Beginning Latin Conquest and Colonization: Spain and America in the Sixteenth Century Nature and Art in the Renaissance The Romance of the People: The Folk Revival from 1760 to 1914 The World of Homer and Hesiod Theories of the State (Aristotle, Hobbes, Rousseau, Marx)
		14:30	Advanced Latin Early Gothic France from c.1100 to c.1150 Revolution and Empire in France from 1789 to 1815 The New Woman in Britain and Ireland, c. 1880-1920 Witch-craft and witch-hunting in Early Modern Europe
Friday	23 June	14:30	Approaches to History Historiography: Tacitus to Weber

Candidates are requested to attend at the EXAMINATION SCHOOLS, High Street, Oxford, OX1 4BG.

J. R.W. PRAG

Chair