Both parties will be informed in writing of the conclusion of the investigation, the action the Head of Department decides to take and the reason for this action. The Director of Student Welfare and Support Services’ Office will also be informed to ensure the appropriate support is put in place.

Possible appeal to Registrar

Criminal misconduct

If a criminal offence has been committed, the harassment Procedure may not be appropriate. These cases will include, but not be limited to, serious assault or threat of serious assault. Student members can seek advice from the Director of Student Welfare and Support Services office and/or approach the Police directly. Further guidance on dealing with cases of sexual assault or sexual violence is available at www.admin.ox.ac.uk/eop/harassmentadvice/policyandprocedure/guidance

Possible appeal to OIA

If these actions do not succeed in resolving the situation, or would not be appropriate given the nature of the complaint, you should proceed to a formal complaint.

In informal steps, if it is safe to do so and you feel able, write to or tell the person that you are unhappy with their behaviour. You can talk through what you might write / say with one of the above contacts.

Complaint against a student

Submit a written complaint to the *Proctors. The Proctors will normally seek your consent to refer you to the *Director of Student Welfare and Support Services’ Office, if you have not already contacted them, so that you can be offered appropriate support from a trained member of staff.

The Proctors will inform the alleged harasser of the basis of the complaint. Witness statements and evidence will be collected.

Both parties will be informed in writing of the conclusion of the investigation, the action the Proctors decide to take and the reason for this action. The Director of Student Welfare and Support Services’ Office will also be informed to ensure the appropriate support is put in place.

Formal complaint

Submit a written complaint to the *Head of Department/Head of Division, copied to the *Director of Human Resources. The Director of Human Resources, with your permission, will forward the complaint to the *Director of Student Welfare and Support Services’ Office, if you have not already contacted them, so that you can be offered appropriate support from a trained member of staff.

Contact the Director of Student Welfare and Support Services’ Office

Director of Student Welfare and Support Services’ Office will give you advice and help you make a decision on your next step. If necessary they will refer you to an appropriate support service. The Director may arrange for mediation or conciliation.

Investigation

The Head of Department or their nominee will inform the alleged harasser of the basis of the complaint. Witness statements and evidence will be collected.

Outcome

Both parties will be informed in writing of the conclusion of the investigation, the action the Head of Department decides to take and the reason for this action. The Director of Student Welfare and Support Services’ Office will also be informed to ensure the appropriate support is put in place.
