What is CGS?

CHINESE GOVERNMENT SCHOLARSHIP

In order to promote the mutual understanding, cooperation and exchanges in various fields between China and other countries, the Chinese government has set up a series of scholarship programmes to sponsor international students, teachers and scholars to study and conduct research in Chinese universities.

Bilateral Programme (Type A)

This includes full or partial scholarships in accordance with the educational exchange agreements or consensus between the Chinese government and governments of other countries, institutions, universities or international organizations. It supports undergraduate students, graduate students, general scholars and senior scholars.

WHY

To encourage more British students to engage with China based on university level and to promote the relationship between Chinese universities and UK universities, the Chinese Embassy and CSC established this short-term CGS scheme

HOW

An U.K. university can carry out or co-organize a two-month (or longer) for your students with one of your Chinese universities in China. There is no limits for type of students or their fields of study. Varieties of programmes, including language and culture study, workshop, co-labs and internship are accepted. However, the programme must be credit-bearing.

WHAT

funding standard is 5800 RMB/student/month
Visa fee or international travelling is not included
Grant from CSC to Chinese university directly

APPLICATION

1. An application letter signed by the applicant U.K. university.
2. A programme introduction (including programme schedule and students list with their majors)
3. Online application
<http://laihua.csc.edu.cn/inscholarship/jsp/student/StudentLogin.jsp>.
4. Chinese partner university will issue the admission letters/JW202 Form to the students after the application accepted by Education Section of Chinese Embassy.
