MAKING THE MOST OF YOUR DAY

There's a lot to pack in during your visit to Oxford, so we would advise you to use this guide and the timetable below to plan your day. Remember that the University is made up of colleges and departments spread around the city, so there is no central campus. All the events in this guide are run on a drop-in basis so there is no need to book in advance.

THINKING OF DEFERRING ENTRY?

This is not always possible so we recommend you check with your course department first.

SUBJECT DEPARTMENT EVENTS

Oxford students are not only members of a college, but also members of a department with access to libraries and facilities. Depending on the course you choose, you would usually have your lectures and do any laboratory work in your department with students from other colleges. Open Days offer a rare opportunity to visit departments and meet tutors and current students as well as attend events. If events become full, priority will be given to prospective students.

'This course' at Oxford talk: These talks will include information about the content of the course and the way it is taught and assessed. Unless a separate admissions talk is offered, they will also cover the specific admissions process for that course.

Admissions talk/Q&A: These talks will cover the application process and what factors admissions tutors take into account during the selection process. At a department, the admissions advice will be specific to the course, and will usually cover topics like admissions tests and written work.

Meet the tutors: Meet tutors in your chosen subject, and ask them questions about the course in an informal setting.

Meet the students: Speak to current students, who will be able to answer questions on student life, provide information about their college or course and share their experiences.

Parents, carers and teachers talk/Q&A: These often run alongside events which are only available to prospective students. They will offer advice on how best to support an applicant, and will usually provide an opportunity to ask questions. These events are highlighted in blue throughout this listing.

VISITING COLLEGES

What is a college?

A college is an academic community, made up of academic and support staff, and students. If you study at Oxford you will live in college accommodation for your first year and often for other years of your course. You will have meals there, make friends, participate in sports and social activities and have access to libraries, bars and a range of support and welfare services.

Colleges are also where much of your teaching will happen, in small groups called tutorials run by tutors. You will have the chance to meet tutors today and if your application is shortlisted you will be interviewed by tutors in December. By visiting colleges, we hope you will begin to understand how the tutorial system works and why we think it's a great way to learn.

What can I see or do today?

Most colleges will be offering a programme of talks, workshops and 'Meet the tutor' sessions (see pages 10-12 for details). All offer tours, where current students will be happy to show you around and answer your questions about studying here and about student life at their college.

Please be aware that many tutors are dividing their time between departments and colleges during the Open Days and their availability cannot be guaranteed. Please look out for details posted within the colleges or ask staff or students for more information.

How do I decide?

The first thing you need to look at is which colleges offer the course you would like to apply for, by checking this table. Please be aware that you will get a high standard of teaching in any of the subjects a college offers. You might also like to consider:

- The size of the college
- The location of the college – is it in the heart of the city centre or a few minutes away? Is it near your department building, the park or the swimming pool?
- How old or new it is
- Accommodation – how many years can you stay in college accommodation, where it is, how much it will cost
- Facilities – all colleges have a library, dining hall and common room but other resources do vary
- Access – most colleges have facilities and accommodation for disabled students; however, given the age of the buildings, some areas of some colleges are not accessible for students with mobility issues. See page 3 for information on where to find out more about disability advice.

Don't worry if you feel you have no strong preference for one college or another, visiting any of the colleges will give you a good idea of how the college system works.

Do I have to choose?

Not if you don't want to. Many students make an 'open' application. This means they don't name a college on their UCAS form and the University allocates the college which will consider them. Even if you do choose a college, you may not end up there. If a college is over-subscribed, then candidates are reallocated elsewhere so many students are offered a place at the college they didn't apply to.

COLLEGE EVENTS

Visiting colleges is a great way to get an understanding of what sets Oxford apart from other universities. Descriptions of the most common events are listed below. If events become full, priority will be given to prospective students.

Admissions talk/Q&A: These talks will cover the application process and what factors admissions tutors take into account during the selection process. This is likely to include advice on choosing a college.

Life at 'this college' talk: These talks may cover tutorials, which take place within colleges, but will probably focus on the non-academic side to student life. They are likely to include information on facilities, support and welfare networks and clubs and societies. They may also talk about the accommodation and meals provided by the college.

Meet the tutors: Your opportunity to meet tutors in your chosen subject, and ask them questions about the course in an informal setting.

Subject sessions: These sessions are offered by some colleges, and will usually be a short talk about a particular course delivered by a tutor, with an opportunity to ask questions.

Meet the students: Your opportunity to speak to current students, who will be able to answer questions on student life, provide information about their college or course and share their experiences.

Parents, carers and teachers talk/Q&A: These often run alongside events which are only available to prospective students. They will cover topics that are often of concern to parents, such as welfare support, finances and accommodation, as well as information on admissions.

INFORMATION FOR PARENTS AND CARERS

Parents and carers are very welcome to our Open Days. We know that many of you will have taken the day off work and travelled a long distance to be here today, so we hope the advice below helps you make the most of your time in Oxford. We run a variety of events covering topics we think will be of particular interest to you. These include the talks listed below, as well as those taking place in colleges and departments (highlighted in the listings on pages 5–12.) You are also welcome to attend many of the other events listed but sometimes, if a room is full and prospective students might miss out, we will ask you to give up your place.

TALKS FOR PARENTS AND CARERS

Why not come and have some of your own questions answered at the Open Day Information Centre? Staff and students will share their knowledge and experiences of our admissions process and aspects of life at Oxford.

Supporting the transition to university

When: 11:00–11:30

Where: Room 6, Ground Floor, Examination Schools

How can you help your child successfully make the transition from school to university? Our support and welfare team will advise on supporting students during this challenging time as well as explaining the wide range of welfare services offered by the University to all its students. Questions will be welcome.

Oxford applications: key information for parents and carers

When: 12:00–12:30

Where: Room 6, Ground Floor, Examination Schools

As well as answering your questions, we will explain our application timeline, highlighting deadlines and focusing on how you may support your child at each stage.

TOP TIPS

- Choosing a course is the most important decision for your child to make, so if they are not sure what they want to study, we suggest they focus on this. We advise all visitors to attend events in subject departments first and look around colleges later.
- Not every course is offered at every college so please check the table on pages 8–9 showing which courses are offered by which college before deciding which ones to visit.
- You don't need to attend more than one admissions talk in the day. Oxford's Common Framework for Admissions means that the admissions process is the same at every college and your child will have a similar chance of being successful with their application no matter which college they apply to.
- Be aware that you are unlikely to have enough time to visit as many colleges as you might like – even visiting one or two will give you a good idea how college life here works.

OPEN DAY INFORMATION CENTRE

Colleges and departments are the best places to meet tutors, speak to students and find out all you need to know about the course you are interested in and about studying at Oxford. However, if you've still got any questions, or if the event you planned to attend is full, then please come to the Open Day Information Centre where there will be information desks available all day.

Open 09:00–17:00, Examination Schools, 75–81 High Street, Oxford, OX1 4BG (map ref: 12)

UNDERSTANDING OXFORD – TALKS FOR ALL

Student Finance and Careers

When: 14:30–15:10

Where: South School, First Floor, Examination Schools

Hear all the latest information about course fees and living costs at Oxford. We will talk you through the funding currently available to UK and EU students to cover these costs, including UK government funding. You will also hear more about Oxford's financial support for UK students starting in 2020, including generous, non-repayable bursaries of up to £5,000 for students from lower-income households and targeted funding for care leavers and estranged undergraduates without family support. A current student will be on hand to answer any questions about financing your studies.

We will complete the picture by updating you on career prospects for Oxford graduates as well as presenting the comprehensive career support and development opportunities available to Oxford students during and after their studies here.

Applying to Oxford

When: 15:20–15:50

Where: South School, First Floor, Examination Schools

If you haven't already attended a college's or department's admissions talk, we will talk you through the whole process, and suggest how to make a competitive application.

Student Life

When: 16:00–16:25 and repeated 16:35–17:00

Where: Room 6, Ground Floor, Examination Schools

Hosted by Oxford SU (Students' Union) and Oxford University Sport, our students will answer questions on a range of topics such as clubs and societies, night life, work-life balance, student support and the hundreds of non-academic opportunities available at Oxford. Please note that this session will not cover admission to the University. Questions about admissions will be answered at colleges, departments and at the admissions stand upstairs in the Open Day Information Centre.

TALKS FOR TEACHERS

Teachers' Forum

When: 13:30–14:15

Where: Room 6, Ground Floor, Examination Schools

A chance for teachers to meet with admissions staff, receive an update on recent changes to the Oxford admissions process and ask questions about how to support students who are considering Oxford. This session will also give advice on how to access Oxford's many outreach resources.

Equality and Diversity

The University of Oxford is committed to fostering an inclusive culture which promotes equality, values diversity and maintains a working, learning and social environment in which the rights and dignity of all its staff and students are respected. Our Equality and Diversity Unit has a team of advisers covering each area of equality and diversity, in relation to both staff and students. For more information on the work of the team please visit: www.admin.ox.ac.uk/eop

Please be aware...

During your visit to Oxford you may see organisations handing out leaflets in the street, claiming to offer advice on the application process. Please be warned that these businesses are not affiliated with the University of Oxford, and they may charge for their services. We encourage you to take advantage of the many free opportunities the University is offering.

PLACES TO EAT AND DRINK

Many colleges offer free lunch or refreshments as part of their Open Day programmes. There are also many good cafés and restaurants all over the city of Oxford. You will be spoilt for choice in George Street, the Covered Market (between Market Street and the High Street), Jericho, the High Street, Little Clarendon Street and the Oxford Castle area.

Turl Street Kitchen (16–17 Turl Street, OX1 3DH) is in the heart of the city centre just opposite Exeter College. Open early from 08:00 and serving food daily until 16:00 Sunday–Tuesday, 21:00 Wednesday and Thursday and 22:00 every Friday and Saturday. Fresh, local and seasonal food with a twist! The building houses Oxford Hub, the Kitchen's sister charity, which supports student community volunteering.

The Oxford University Club café (11 Mansfield Road, OX13SZ) will be open for snacks and refreshments all day, serving breakfast 08:00–10:30, lunch 12:00–14:00 and dinner from the bar menu 17:30–20:30.

The Biochemistry café (South Parks Road, OX1 3QU) will be open 08:30–16:15 for continental-style breakfast, hot or cold lunches, snacks and drinks. Please note this café can only accept cash.

Café π, Mathematical Institute (Woodstock Road, OX2 6GG) will be open from 08:30–16:15 for breakfast, lunch, snacks and drinks.

The Museum café (Museum of Natural History, Parks Road, OX1 3PW) is situated on the upper gallery overlooking the dinosaurs. There are child-friendly options available and families are always welcome. Open 10:00–16:30.

The Vaults and Garden Café (Radcliffe Square, OX1 4AJ), conveniently located in the precincts of the University Church, offering a deliciously organic, local and seasonal menu. Breakfast, lunch, and snacks are available from 08:00–18:00.

If we are lucky with the weather and you feel like a picnic, perhaps by the river, then you may like to go to the University Parks or Christ Church Meadow, both of which are central. (See maps on pages 18 and 20).
