Making the Most of Your Day

There’s a lot to pack in during your visit to Oxford so please use the timetable below and the information in this guide to plan your time wisely. Remember that the University of Oxford is made up of colleges and departments spread around the city – there is no central campus. Use the maps on pages 18 and 20 to plan your route between venues.

The best times to visit the different venues are shown in the sample timetable below.

TOP TIPS

Events listed in this guide are all available on a drop-in basis, you do not need to have booked ahead. However, please do arrive early for sessions to make sure you get a place and to keep things running smoothly all day.

Accommodation

– Colleges: Most colleges will show you round student rooms as part of their tours and will provide information about the types of accommodation they offer.

– You can read general information about accommodation in the prospectus, on pages 142 and 182. Pick up a copy at a college or department or at the Open Day Information Centre. The most up-to-date information about average rents is available on the University website: www.ox.ac.uk/collegerents.

www.ox.ac.uk/livinginoxford

Disability Advice

– Open Day Information Centre: Talk to our experts at the Disability Advice stand for information and advice on the individual support and adjustments available for a range of needs.

– Colleges: Ask for advice on access arrangements, facilities and support available to students.

www.ox.ac.uk/swd

Careers

– Open Day Information Centre: Attend the Student Finance and Careers talk at 14:30, or talk to our experts at the Careers Service stand.

– Careers Service building: Drop in between 09:00–16:00 to meet careers service staff, learn more about the work they do and see the resources on offer to students and alumni. (56 Banbury Road, OX2 6PA – see map on page 18).

– Colleges and departments: Tutors will be able to talk to you about the kind of jobs recent graduates have gone on to do.

Parents and carers are very welcome to our Open Days. We know that many of you will have had to take a day off work or travel a long distance to be here today so we hope the advice below helps you make the most of your time here in Oxford.

- We run a variety of talks covering topics we think will be of particular interest to you. These include talks in the Open Day Information Centre about supporting an applicant and how to prepare for the transition from school to university (see page 14) as well as talks in colleges and departments (highlighted in the listings on pages 8–13).

- Parents and carers are also welcome to attend many of the other events in the programme but sometimes if a room is full and students might miss out, we will ask you to give up your place.

- Choosing a course is the most important decision for your child to make, so if they are not sure what they want to study, we suggest they focus on this. We advise all visitors to attend events in subject departments first and look around colleges later.

- Not every course is offered at every college so please check the table on page 6 showing which courses are offered by which college before deciding which ones to visit.

- Oxford's Common Framework for Admissions means that the admissions process is the same at every college and your child will have a similar chance of being successful with their application no matter which college they apply to. You don't need to attend more than one admissions talk in the day.

- Be aware that you are unlikely to have enough time to visit as many colleges as you might like – even visiting one or two will give you a good idea how college life here works.

- There will be lots of opportunities to talk to staff and students throughout the day so please encourage your child to ask lots of questions and to plan their day realistically using the information and advice in this guide.
VISITING COLLEGES

What is a college?
A college is a learning community, made up of academic and support staff, and students. If you study at Oxford you will live in a college and much of your teaching will happen there, in small groups called tutorials. Those who teach you are called tutors. You will have the chance to meet tutors today and if your application is shortlisted you will be interviewed by tutors in December.

By visiting colleges, we hope you will begin to understand how the tutorial system works and why we think it’s a great way to learn. You will live in your college for your first year and often for other years of your course. You will have meals there, make friends, participate in sports and social activities and have access to libraries, bars and a range of support and welfare services.

What can I see or do today?
Some colleges offer pre-booked programmes of talks and workshops. All offer tours and you are welcome to visit all the colleges at the opening times listed on pages 8-10. Current students will be happy to show you round and answer your questions about studying here and about student life at their college.

Some colleges also offer the opportunity to attend talks and meet subject tutors on a drop-in basis. However, please be aware that many tutors are dividing their time between departments and colleges during the Open Days and their availability cannot be guaranteed. Please look out for details posted within the colleges or ask staff or students for more information.

Which colleges should I visit?
Confused about which colleges to visit? Don’t worry, you are not alone. This is one of the most common questions we get asked on Open Days.

We strongly suggest that you draw up a shortlist of colleges before you get here. But if you haven’t managed to do that, please read the advice below and use the information in this guide to decide which colleges to visit today.

Which college offers my course?
The first thing you need to do when deciding which colleges to visit is check which ones offer the course you want to study. Most colleges offer most courses. But not all colleges offer all courses. This table summarises the courses offered at each college.

You might also like to consider:

- The size of the college
- The location of the college (is it in the heart of the city centre or a few minutes away? Is it near your department building, the park, the river or the swimming pool?)
- How old or new it is
- Accommodation – how many years can you stay in college accommodation, where it is, how much it will cost
- Facilities – all colleges have a library, dining hall and common room but other resources do vary

Access – most colleges have facilities and accommodation for disabled students; however, given the age of the buildings, some areas of some colleges are not accessible for students with mobility issues. Our Disability Advisory Service have a stand at the Open Day Information Centre and can advise you about this.
Frequently asked questions:

Which college is best for my subject?

Colleges do not have specialist subjects. Be assured that you will get very high standards of teaching in any of the subjects a college offers.

Which college is easiest to get into?

None are easy to get into! All colleges have signed up to a common set of rules and apply the same criteria to assessing applications. If one college is over-subscribed, then candidates are reallocated to another college. Many students end up getting offered a place at a college they didn't apply to.

Can't someone else choose for me?

Yes. If you don't want to, you don't have to choose a college at all. Many students make an "open" application. This means they don't name a college on their UCAS form and the University allocates the college which will consider them.

Don't worry if you feel you have no strong preference for one college or another. Visiting any of the colleges will give you a good idea of how the college system works.

Information about all of these considerations is available on the University website and in the prospectus, which you can pick up at venues today.

---

This information is correct as of March 2018, but is subject to change.

For marked courses, available course combinations vary between colleges.

Check ox.ac.uk/whichcolls for the latest information.
Visiting colleges is a great way to get an understanding of what sets Oxford apart from other universities. Descriptions of the most common events are listed below. If events become full, priority will be given to prospective students.

Admissions talk/Q&A: These talks will cover the application process and what factors admissions tutors take into account during the selection process. At a college, this is likely to include advice on choosing a college.

Life at ‘this college’ talk: These talks may cover the tutorials, which take place within colleges, but will probably focus on the non-academic side to student life. They are likely to include information on recreation facilities, support and welfare networks and clubs and societies. They may also talk about the accommodation and meals provided by the college.

Meet the tutors: Your opportunity to meet tutors in your chosen subject, and ask them questions about the course in an informal setting.

Subject sessions with tutors: These sessions are offered by some colleges, and will usually be a short talk about a particular course delivered by a tutor, with an opportunity to ask questions. These tutors teach tutorials for this course at the college.

Meet the students: Your opportunity to speak to current students, who will be able to answer questions on student life, provide information about their college or course, and share their experience of the admissions process.

Parents, carers and teachers talk/Q&A: These often run alongside events which are only available to prospective students. They will cover topics that are often of concern to parents, such as welfare support, finances, and accommodation, as well as information on admissions. These events are highlighted in orange throughout this listing.

Wycliffe Hall only accepts applications from mature students: those who are 21 and over at the start of their course.
Oxford students are not only members of a college, but also members of a department with access to other libraries and facilities. Depending on the course you choose, you would usually have your lectures and do any laboratory work in your department with students from other colleges. Open Days offer a rare opportunity to visit departments and meet tutors and current students as well as attend events. If events become full, priority will be given to prospective students.

‘This course’ at Oxford talk: These talks will include information about the content of the course and the way it is taught and assessed. Unless a separate admissions talk is offered, they will also cover the specific admissions process for that course.

Admissions talk/Q&A: These talks will cover the application process and what factors admissions tutors take into account during the selection process. At a department, the admissions advice will be specific to the course, and will usually cover topics like admissions tests and written work.

Meet the tutors: An opportunity to meet tutors in your chosen subject, and ask them questions about the course in an informal setting.

Meet the students: An opportunity to speak to current students, who will be able to answer questions on student life, provide information about their college or course and share their experience of the admissions process.

Parents, carers and teachers talk/Q&A: These often run alongside events which are only available to prospective students. They will offer advice on how best to support an applicant, and will usually provide an opportunity to ask questions. These events are highlighted in blue throughout this listing.

Colleges and departments are the best places to meet tutors and students and to find out all you need to know about the course you are interested in and about studying at Oxford. However, if you’ve still got any questions, or if the event you planned to attend is full, then please come to the Open Day Information Centre where there will be information desks available all day.

UNDERSTANDING OXFORD — TALKS FOR ALL

Student Finance and Careers
When: 14:30–15:10
Where: South School, First Floor, Examination Schools

Hear all the latest information about tuition fees and living costs at Oxford. We will talk you through the funding available to UK and EU students to cover these costs, including UK government funding and Oxford’s generous, non-repayable bursaries. A current student will be on hand to share their experience about financing their studies at Oxford.

We will complete the picture by updating you on career prospects for Oxford graduates as well as presenting the comprehensive career support and development opportunities available to Oxford students during and after their studies here.

Applying to Oxford
When: 15:20–15:50
Where: South School, First Floor, Examination Schools

If you haven’t attended a college’s or department’s admissions talk earlier in the day, we will talk you through the whole process, and suggest how to make a competitive application.

Student Life
When: 16:00–16:25
Where: Room 6, Ground Floor, Examination Schools

Hosted by Oxford SU (Students’ Union) and Oxford University Sport, our students will answer questions on a range of topics such as clubs and societies, night life, work-life balance, student support and the hundreds of non-academic opportunities available at Oxford. Please note that this session will not cover admission to the University. Questions about admissions will be answered at colleges, departments and at the admissions stand upstairs in the Open Day Information Centre.

TALKS FOR PARENTS AND CARERS

Why not come and have some of your own questions answered? Staff and students will share their knowledge and experiences of our admissions process and aspects of life at Oxford. Many colleges and departments also offer talks specifically for parents and carers and these are highlighted in the listings on pages 8–13.

Supporting the transition to university – student support and welfare
When: 11:00–11:30
Where: Room 6, Ground Floor, Examination Schools

How can you help your child successfully make the transition from school to university? Our support and welfare team will advise on supporting students during this challenging time as well as explaining the wide range of welfare services offered by the University to all its students. Questions will be welcome.

Supporting an Oxford applicant as a parent or carer
When: 12:00–12:30
Where: Room 6, Ground Floor, Examination Schools

As well as answering your questions, we will explain our application timeline, highlighting key dates and focusing on how you may support your child at each stage.

TALKS FOR TEACHERS

Teachers’ Forum
When: 13:30–14:15
Where: Room 6, Ground Floor, Examination Schools

A chance for teachers to meet with admissions staff, receive an update on recent changes to the Oxford admissions process and ask questions about how to support students who are considering Oxford. This session will also give advice on how to access Oxford’s many outreach resources.

Equality and Diversity

The University of Oxford is committed to fostering an inclusive culture which promotes equality, values diversity and maintains a working, learning and social environment in which the rights and dignity of all its staff and students are respected. Our Equality and Diversity Unit has a team of advisers covering each area of equality and diversity, in relation to both staff and students. For more information on the work of the team please visit: www.admin.ox.ac.uk/eop

Please be aware...

During your visit to Oxford you may see organisations handing out leaflets in the street, claiming to offer advice on the application process. Please be warned that these businesses are not affiliated with the University of Oxford, and they may charge for their services. We encourage you to take advantage of the many free opportunities the University is offering to find out more.

PLACES TO EAT AND DRINK

Many colleges offer free lunch or refreshments as part of their Open Day programmes. There are also many good cafés and restaurants all over the city of Oxford. You will be spoilt for choice in Broad Street, the Covered Market (between Market Street and the High Street), Cornmarket, the High Street, Little Clarendon Street and the Oxford Castle area.

Turl Street Kitchen (16–17 Turl Street, OX1 3DH) is in the heart of the city centre just opposite Exeter College. Open early until 23:00 serving food between 8am–10pm every Friday and Saturday: fresh, local, seasonal food with a menu which changes twice daily. The building houses Oxford Hub, the Kitchen’s sister charity, which supports student community volunteering.

The Oxford University Club café (11 Mansfield Road, OX1 3SZ) will be open for snacks and refreshments all day, serving breakfast 08:00–10:30, lunch 12:00–14:00 and dinner from the bar menu 17:30–20:30.

The Biochemistry café (South Parks Road, OX1 3QU) will be open 08:30–16:15 for continental-style breakfast, hot or cold lunches, snacks and drinks. Please note this café can only accept cash.

Café π, Mathematical Institute (Woodstock Road, OX2 6GG) will be open from 08:30–16:15 for breakfast, lunch, snacks and drinks.

The Museum café (Museum of Natural History, Parks Road, OX1 3PW) is situated on the upper gallery overlooking the dinosaurs. There are child-friendly options available and families are always welcome. Open 10:00–16:30.

The Vaults and Garden Café (Radcliffe Square, OX1 4AJ), conveniently located in the precincts of the University Church, offering a deliciously organic, local and seasonal menu. Breakfast, lunch, and snacks are available from 08:00–18:00. Visitors receive a 10% discount upon presenting the Open Day Brochure.

If we are lucky with the weather and you feel like a picnic, perhaps by the river, then you may like to go to the University Parks or Christ Church Meadow, both of which are central. (See maps on pages 18 and 20).
