PGDip in Global Business

About the course

The PGDip in Global Business, also referred to as the Oxford Executive Diploma in Global Business, is designed to connect experienced professionals around the world to share and develop the best practice needed to successfully navigate complex international business contexts.

This interactive programme is built on the academic rigour of a specialised Oxford master's-level qualification. Each module has been developed to prepare you to proactively face global challenges head-on and operate effectively in our semi-globalised world.

Upon successful completion of this diploma, you will have developed an in-depth perspective on world issues, advanced knowledge of global markets and a sharpened set of practical tools to immediately apply your learnings in your own organisation.

Course outline

The Oxford Executive Diploma in Global Business is comprised of four immersive modules taught in Oxford over one year. These modules usually take place once per quarter.

Prior to your arrival, you will be invited to attend an online welcome event to meet your cohort and receive your programme onboarding information. This includes an introduction to the programme, key members of staff, Canvas – our online learning hub and more. Pre-reading, and any other preparatory materials, is typically shared on Canvas one month before each module. You will be expected to complete the allocated pre-reading prior to each module.

Previous participants have estimated that the study commitment in-between modules is approximately 6-8 hours per week for the duration of the diploma programme. This time is spent completing the allocated pre-reading prior to each module and preparing for the four assessments.

In between modules, you will be invited to take part in our Executive Insights and Impact series – our new online co-curricular programme, launching in 2023. The series aims to both enrich your learning experience and enhance your impact in the workplace in the long term.

Executive Insights sessions

Drawing on the faculty expertise and synergies present throughout the portfolio, this series is intended as an opportunity for you to connect and collaborate with other participants across the Executive Diplomas through discussions on topical trends. Topics could include reflective leadership and strategic approaches in our changing world.

Executive Impact workshops

Our diploma-wide Executive Impact workshop series is focused on supporting you to expand your professional network, achieve your ambitions and elevate your presence at board level. We recognise that each participant is at a different stage in their career journey, and we have therefore carefully curated these sessions to appeal to a range of different development goals. These lively and interactive workshops are delivered in three instalments over the course of the year, focusing on practical topics such as:

1. Managing your career: setting a vision and taking action

2. Building your personal brand
3. Personal impact and storytelling

Course modules

Central to the design of the Oxford Executive Diplomas is the dual focus on the academic theory ('thinking') behind current organisational and global challenges, and the practical approaches ('doing') through which to successfully navigate them.

The Oxford Executive Diploma in Global Business offers a specialist focus on four core modules pertinent to effective organisational operations in a global context:

1. Global Strategy
2. Risk and Reputation
3. Corporate Diplomacy in a Global Context
4. The Challenges of Business in Emerging Markets

The aim of these courses is to provide an advanced breadth and depth of knowledge, combined with the practical professional tools, that will enable you to:

- accelerate your career in a global role
- advance your corporate diplomacy capabilities to operate across multiple and contrasting cultures
- effectively 'bridge the gap' when working between public and private sectors
- successfully steer and sustain global growth plans
- launch and rapidly scale start-ups and ventures worldwide

The programme is taught through a combination of lectures, case studies and syndicate group discussions. The content is highly interactive, and you will be encouraged to share your sector and industry knowledge, experiences and best practices with your peers throughout.

Supervision

For this course, the allocation of graduate supervision is the responsibility of the Saïd Business School and it is not always possible to accommodate the preferences of incoming graduate students to work with a particular member of staff.

Your academic supervisor will provide support with academic progress, guidance, and corrective action.

Assessment

The first three modules will be assessed by submissions and/or examination. The final module is assessed by an extended assignment related to your organisation or industry.

Successful completion of the programme will result in the award of a Postgraduate Diploma in Global Business.

Changes to courses

The University will seek to deliver this course in accordance with the description set out above. However, there may be situations in which it is desirable or necessary for the University to make changes in course provision, either before or after registration. These may include significant changes made necessary by a pandemic (including Covid-19), epidemic or local health emergency.

For further information, please see the University's Terms and Conditions (<http://www.graduate.ox.ac.uk/terms>) and our page on changes to courses (<http://www.graduate.ox.ac.uk/coursechanges>).

Information about course fees

Course fees cover your teaching as well as other academic services and facilities provided to support your studies. Unless specified in the additional cost information (below), course fees do not cover your accommodation, residential costs or other living costs. They also don't cover any additional costs and charges that are outlined in the additional cost information.

Deposits

If your application is successful, you will be asked to pay a deposit against your course fees at the application stage as a condition of your offer. The deposit amount and date by which payment must be made are shown below.

Additional cost information

As part of your course requirements, you will need to choose a final project topic. Depending on your choice of topic and the research required to complete it, you may incur additional expenses, such as travel expenses, research expenses, and field trips. You will need to meet these additional costs, although you may be able to apply for small grants from your department to help you cover some of these expenses. Please note that this course requires that you are taught in Oxford, and you will need to incur travel and accommodation costs to attend the course if you do not live in the Oxford area.

Living costs

In addition to your course fees, you will need to ensure that you have adequate funds to support your living costs for the duration of your course.

If you are studying part-time your living costs may vary depending on your personal circumstances but you must still ensure that you will have sufficient funding to meet these costs for the duration of your course.

The likely living costs for 2023-24 are published below. These costs are based on a single, full-time graduate student, with no dependants, living in Oxford. We provide the cost per month so you can multiply up by the number of months you expect to live in Oxford.
